

FCA Coaches Weekend

July 8-10, 2016

Event Speakers

Former Husker Travis Turner and his wife, Carol, will join us at the 2016 Coaches Weekend. They are the founders of Divine Romance Ministries based in Phoenix Arizona.

Travis is a featured instructor in the Christ Quest Institute and was instrumental in building the largest home inspection firm in Arizona. He also established a thriving real estate business. Travis was the starting quarterback at the University of Nebraska in 1984-85.

Divine Romance Ministries, Inc. provides Christ-centered mentoring/coaching. Their goal is to strengthen Christian marriages in an effort to eliminate divorce.

The focus of their message is a complete and total submission to the Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Corinthians 13:8 tells us that "Love Never Fails." This is a promise they take literally. They believe that the love of Christ can guide, direct, humble and inspire us to overcome any relationship conflict we encounter.
