Hugh Freeze and the Peril of Public Faith

1. What was your initial reaction to the dismissal of Hugh Freeze from his head coaching position at Ole Miss?
2. Speaking to the perception the public had of Hugh Freeze this article made the following point: “What non-Christians seem to hate most about believers is the perception of moral superiority. And when well-known Christians fall, some take opportunity to say, “See, you’re not any better than I am.”

Do you agree or disagree? Why?

3. Read the following verses: Matthew 5:21-22, Matthew 5:27-28

Now Discuss the following paragraph: “True Christianity proclaims that any righteousness a person possesses is inherited, not generated. Jesus repeatedly said all people are equally bankrupt before a holy God. In the Sermon on the Mount, he explained that one who hates another has committed murder in the heart. Any person who has lusted sexually over someone not their spouse has committed adultery. All people repeatedly fall, and thus no room exists for comparison, condescension, or shame.”

4. How do we gain a standing of Righteousness before God?
